MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

Flanders Mentions CIA in Answer to "What Committee Should Investigate Army-McCarthy Row?"

Asked if the Armed Forces Committee of the Congress, rather than the Governmental Operations (McCarthy) Committee, should investigate the Army-McCarthy dispute, Senator Flanders (R., Vermont) on "Meet the Press" last night said that he thought the McCarthy Committee was the proper one because the questions raised went beyond the Army, to include the State and Defense Departments and the CIA. Where only Army morale is involved, he said, such phase should be investigated by the Armed Forces Committee, of which he is a member.
